

TERMS & CONDITIONS:

1. The Report of Analytical Results may be released to the customer only after settlement of the total cost of analysis.
2. The customer agrees to the due date and method of analyses to be conducted in relation to this request.
3. The ASL is not liable to consequences arising from the delay in delivery of results due to unforeseen circumstances like power failures, instrument downtime, acts of nature, war/terrorism, etc.
4. The ASL shall destroy and consider null and void all Report of Analytical Results which are not claimed within one year after the due date.
5. The customer agrees to collect all unused samples and shall be responsible for its disposal thereafter.
6. Extra samples which are not claimed after three (3) months shall be disposed by the ASL.
7. The ASL is not liable to any losses or liability which the customer may incur as a consequence of the results contained in the Report of Analytical Results.
8. The ASL is not liable for whatever legal purpose the Report of Analytical Results may be used by the customer.
9. All tests/analyses are done only on the samples submitted to the ASL.
